

Coaching Network for Executive Pastors

NEXT DATES TBA

Facilitated by Tim Stevens

Who this is for:

- Executive Pastors or leaders with executive duties in a local church. [If you are involved in strategic planning, budgeting, employment decisions and leading change—you have executive duties.]
- Not everyone. [Applicants will be screened. The Network will be limited to 6-12 participants.]
- Leaders in a season or at a crossroads who need customized, focused, up close and personal attention. [Sometimes, instead of a conference, you need a controlled, safe forum to be blunt about the challenges you face and get frank, encouraging insight in return.]
- Leaders who are highly committed to strategic, interactive, out-of-the-box learning opportunities and are willing to invest the time, energy and money for the journey.

What participants get:

- Six one-day coaching sessions (9 a.m.-4 p.m. with a working lunch) led by Tim Stevens on location in Granger, Indiana.
- Each session with targeted focus discussions...
 - Hiring, firing, developing a healthy staff culture.
 - Relationship management – with your boss, peers and employees
 - Building, sustaining and leading volunteer teams.
 - Finding and growing high capacity leaders.
 - Leading change, strategic communications.
 - Strategies and philosophies behind planning weekend services.
 - Budgeting and money issues, following trends, growth strategies.
 - Managing building projects, bringing them in under budget.
 - Leading through the launch and ongoing leadership of a multi-site church.
- Surprise guest experts for relevant topics.
- The opportunity to roll-up your sleeves and let down your guard with peers you can trust. Time will be carved to drill down on your top issue—working together with the group for possible solutions.
- A controlled, filtered setting to work together with a small group of leaders who will share what they've learned, encourage you with objectivity and energize you for your next phase.
- Direct access to Tim Stevens between meetings (your emails will jump to the top).
- VIP guest treatment during your visits.
- A free copy of Tim's books.
 - Simply Strategic Stuff: Help for Leaders Drowning in the Details of Running a Church
 - Simply Strategic Volunteers: Empowering People for Ministry
 - Simply Strategic Growth: Attracting a Crowd to Your Church
 - Pop Goes the Church: Should the Church Engage Pop Culture?

- Access to an exclusive online space for connecting between meetings.
- Electronic files of all coaching notes and supporting documents.
- Additional books and curriculum.

What participants give:

- Commit to participate in 6 face-to-face coaching sessions.
 - NEXT SET OF DATES TBA
- Investment. $3,000 per participant for the network experience (includes all materials and books, and your meals on-site), payable within 21 days after notification that you have been accepted. If you need to spread the expense over two budget years, we have an alternative payment plan.
- Time between sessions to read a book and come prepared to participate in focused discussion.

A few more details:

- A large percentage of the revenue from this Coaching Network will be invested to help subsidize the training of pastors and leaders around the world through the ministry of WiredChurches.com.
- You're responsible for your own travel and lodging.

What's next:

- Future coaching dates for the Executive Pastors Coaching will be announced soon. Interested? Contact info@wiredchurches.com.

More about Tim Stevens

For 15 years, Tim's leadership has helped Granger connect with people who think church is irrelevant. He has done this through the creative blending of architecture, strategy and technology. He's acutely tuned in to popular culture and is instrumental in balancing operations, building creative teams and inspiring artists to brand each message series and sharpen the weekend experience. He's co-authored the Simply Strategic book series using humor and practical principles to equip churches and ministry leaders, and in 2008 published Pop Goes the Church to challenge leaders to leverage the culture to reach their communities. More...

- In full-time ministry serving the local church since 1985.
- On staff with Granger Community Church (Granger, IN) since 1994.
- In the role of Executive Pastor since 1997. Responsible for 85+ staff.
- Instrumental in leading Granger through steady growth from 350 people meeting in a movie theater to more than 5,000 gathering each weekend.
- Led the development of Granger's 55-acre campus and six building projects—bringing in every project under budget.
- Responsible for the team that designed and built Granger's multi-sensory Children's Center.
- Has taught more than 16,000 church leaders in person at workshops, conferences and seminars since 2002.
- Author of LeadingSmart.com blog with more than 3,000 subscribers and 20,000+ unique visitors each month.
- Published articles in several publications including Rick Warren's Ministry Toolbox, REV Magazine, Pastors.com and is a regular columnist for Collide Magazine.
- Interviewed for views on Pop Culture by the Atlanta Journal Constitution and the Wall Street Journal.
- One of the leaders of WiredChurches.com with an influence-based network of 16,000 church leaders.

Quick facts about Granger

- Started in 1986 by Mark and Sheila Beeson.
- A local church with a vision of reaching every unchurched person in the population-base of 300,000 people.
- For ten years met in a movie theater and grew to 900 people.
- Launched WiredChurches.com in 2001 to train pastors and church leaders around the world.
- Associated with the Willow Creek Association, Purpose-Driven, and the United Methodist Church.
- With the launch of a campus in Elkhart, Indiana—Granger is now a multi-site ministry.
- Granger is 20 minutes from the South Bend airport (SBN), 90 minutes from Chicago Midway (MDW) and 2 hours from Chicago O'Hare (ORD).
- Learn more about Granger at GCCwired.com or watch videos on YouTube or Vimeo.